

Many times I drive through the Southern California valleys and mountain areas. XM radio is the only way I can check on changing weather conditions. Regular FM and AM radio does not work in these area. Please keep regional weather and traffic available.

I am a registered voter.